

FOUR-DAY INSTRUCTOR TRAINING "FROM CORRECTIONS FATIGUE TO FULFILLMENT™" (CF2F)

This four-day course provides a scientific and evidence-based explanation of the psychological dynamics behind the negativity of the corrections workplace and its manifold costly consequences to you, your colleagues and your Correctional Agency.

It also presents data-driven and evidence-based strategies to increase staff well-being and to improve the organizational climate and culture based on research in Positive Psychology, psychological trauma and resilience.

- Unquestionably needed by all who work in corrections
- Previous graduates call it career-saving, relationship-saving, maybe even life-saving
- Practical and easy to grasp by both new and veteran employees, and by managers
- Can be offered by your instructors as a full-day course
- Can be modified to address either line staff and/or supervisor interests and concerns

What Trainees Get

- Three-year license as Instructors or co-instructors to offer the 1-day course exclusively to fellow staff at their agencies
- PowerPoint slides, Facilitator Guide, Course Handouts, and Participant Manual
- Six customized versions for staff in: adult corrections or detention facilities, probation and parole offices, youth facilities, youth community corrections, corrections staff who supervise sex offenders, and new recruits
- Copy of book "Staying Well: Strategies for Corrections Staff"
- Certificate of Attendance for 30 Contact Hours
- Four 30-minute individual phone coaching sessions
