FOUR-DAY INSTRUCTOR TRAINING
"FROM CORRECTIONS FATIGUE TO FULFILLMENT™" (CF2F)

This four-day course provides a scientific and evidence-based explanation of the psychological dynamics behind the negativity of the corrections workplace and its manifold costly consequences to you, your colleagues and your Corrections Agency.

It also presents data-driven and evidence-based strategies to increase staff well-being and to improve the organizational climate and culture based on research in Positive Psychology, psychological trauma, and resilience.

- Unquestionably needed by all who work in corrections
- Previous graduates call it career-saving, relationship-saving, maybe even life-saving
- Practical and easy to grasp by both new and veteran employees, and by managers
- To be offered by your instructors as a full-day course
- Can be modified to address either line staff and/or supervisor interests and concerns

What Instructor Candidates Get

- Three-year license as Instructors or Co-instructors to offer the 1-day course exclusively to staff at their agency (Instructors can train alone; Co-instructors train with a lead Instructor)
- PowerPoint slides, Facilitator Guide, other course handouts, Participant Manual, and future updates of the course
- FIVE customized versions for staff in: adult corrections or detention facilities, probation and parole offices, juvenile facilities, juvenile community services, and new recruits
- Book "Staying Well: Strategies for Corrections Staff", 2nd Ed.
- Certificate of Attendance for 30 Contact Hours
- Two 1-hour individual phone coaching sessions

Criteria for Instructor Candidates

- Prior instructor certifications received (preferred)
- Experience training employees in a classroom setting
- At least 5 years of working in corrections
- Experience having successfully worked through some work-related challenges
- Ability to present emotionally-laden material
- Ability to moderate emotionally-heated discussions

Training Topics

1. The nature, signs, impact and causes of Corrections Fatigue
2. Strategies for individual self-care and professional fulfillment
3. Organizational strategies for a positive workplace climate and a healthy organizational culture
