TRAINING CURRICULUM OUTLINE

A. COURSE TITLE

“Improving the Wellbeing of Corrections Professionals: Understanding, Acknowledging, and Overcoming Traumatic Stress™”

B. COURSE GOALS

Improving the Wellbeing of Corrections Professionals™ (IWCP) is an 8-hour course designed to:

- (a) educate correctional professionals regarding the variety of ways in which staff wellness is negatively impacted by exposure to occupational trauma, and
- (b) present data-driven strategies for potentially preventing, reducing and overcoming distressing experiences related to traumatic exposure, possibly resulting in increased likelihood of protecting and promoting staff wellness.

C. COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Define the term psychological trauma and related terms.
- Identify the psychological impact of trauma, with particular emphasis on experiences relevant to corrections professionals and corrections workplaces.
- Describe data-driven strategies and practices for potentially lessening the impact of exposure to traumatic stressors on corrections staff and their workforce cultures, and for fostering resilience.

D. TARGET AUDIENCE

Target Audience: Federal, state, county and city corrections professionals

E. COURSE FORMAT & CONTENT

Improving the Wellbeing of Corrections Professionals™ is an 8-hour, highly interactive course designed to involve the learner in open discussion to acquire new information, insight and self-awareness.
