

Dear Family Member of (Agency Name) Employees,

Working in corrections is both challenging and demanding. The profession carries significant responsibilities and often exposes staff to difficult, stressful, and emotionally taxing situations. While family members may not witness these experiences firsthand, you often feel their effects when the stress of the job follows your loved one home.

As we observe National Correctional Family Appreciation Week, June 1–7, we want to express our sincere gratitude for the vital role you play in supporting your loved one and our agency. Your encouragement, understanding, patience, and strength help provide stability and comfort during the difficult moments that can come with correctional work.

You are an essential part of your loved one's well-being and resilience. In many ways, your support also strengthens our entire agency. Our employees are our greatest asset, and the sacrifices made by their families do not go unnoticed.

With deep appreciation and respect, we thank you for all that you do.

THANK YOU.
